- We do not recommend you to travel to Bali on Nyepi since the service will be very limited, people are not allowed to leave their residences for one whole day, and airport will not operating as well.

Travelling a week before and after Eid Al-Fitr is also risky as most of Indonesian Muslims will swarm to their hometown for family gathering (before Eid Al-Fitr) and reverse back by the end of the holiday (after Eid Al-Fitr); it is much like Christmas and New Year holidays. Heavy traffic, overcrowded tourism spots, and minimum hotel services are to be expected.

- BBM rate is 7500/liter (last updated 27 December 2018).
